

The Future and Prospects of Eucharistic Ecclesiology

Augustin Viorel Coman

This presentation engages John Zizioulas' Eucharistic Ecclesiology, with special focus on some of the main challenges it faces in the contemporary and future context. In this regard, particular attention will be given to the following challenges: the tension between physical and virtual ecclesial presence in an increasingly digital environment; the relationship between individual spirituality and ecclesial communion; Eucharistic ecclesiology and the crisis of authority; Eucharist and social fragmentation; Eucharist and the culture of immediacy and presentism.
